

About your
Wolf Trap
Teaching Artist...

Valerie Branch

Valerie Branch became a Wolf Trap artist in 2014 and provides residencies in early childhood classrooms. She has experience touring as a performing and teaching artist both nationally and internationally. She has taught as an independent artist and with different organizations such as WPAS, and is a teaching artist with Young Audiences of Maryland. As a teaching artist, Valerie brought dance into schools in South Africa and St. George's, Grenada and also received an invitation from the Danish Embassy to participate in a Cultural Arts Program Exchange Visit to Denmark.

Valerie graduated magna cum laude from the University of Maryland College Park with a Bachelor's degree in Dance. She is the founder and artistic director of VB Dance Ensemble, a professional contemporary company focused on bringing social and cultural awareness and change through the power of dance.
